

Merrymeeting Bay

2002-2003 SPEAKER SERIES

7:00 p.m., Beam Classroom, Visual Arts Center, Bowdoin College, Brunswick

January 8th event held at Bridge Academy, Dresden at 7:00 p.m.

December 11th event held at 7:30pm, Cram Alumni House, Bowdoin College, 83 Federal Street, Brunswick

- OCTOBER 17 State Senate Candidates Environmental Forum.
David Chipman, Beth Edmunds, Art Mayo, F. Douglas Newman, Sharon Treat, Guy Vigue.
- NOVEMBER 13 Pulp, Paper and Pollution. Michael Barden, Maine Pulp and Paper Association; Nick Bennett, Natural Resources Council of Maine; John Dieffenbacher-Krall, Maine People's Alliance; Steve Groves, International Paper.
- DECEMBER 11 Archeology of the Merrymeeting Bay Area. Arthur Spiess, Maine Historical Preservation Commission.
▶ 7:30 p.m.
Cram Alumni House Pot Luck Dinner and FOMB Annual Meeting at 6:00pm.
- JANUARY 8 Butterflies of Maine and Their Life Histories.
▶ Bridge Academy Christopher Livesay, Avocational Lepidopterist.
- FEBRUARY 12 Kennebec: Cradle of the Americas: Selected Readings from Robert Tristram Coffin's Novel. Frank Burroughs and Gary Lawless, Local Published Authors
- MARCH 12 Bird Sounds of Merrymeeting Bay. Will Broussard, Cornell Certified Natural Sound Recordist.
- APRIL 9 Wild Rice Community Dynamics. John Lichter, Bowdoin College Assistant Professor, Julie Grinvalsky and Tim Pasakarnis, Bowdoin College Students.
- MAY 14 The Kennebec Ice Industry. Eleanor Everson, Ice Historian.

Sponsored by Friends of Merrymeeting Bay

Bowdoin College Environmental Studies Program

With help from Patagonia, Enterprise Farm, Brunswick-Topsham Land Trust, The Nature Conservancy, Lower Kennebec Regional Land Trust, and Maine Island Trail Association

Contact FOMB at 207-666-3376 or fomb@ghi.net for more information.